

Microwave and Radio Electronics Week 2013

Pardubice, Czech Republic

April 16-18, 2013

Call for Paper

The Microwave and Radio Electronics Week 2013 is organized by Czech and Slovak technical universities in order to create a discussion forum for researchers, academics, people in industry, and students from central Europe who are interested in the latest development in the area of radio electronics and related disciplines.

The convention consists of two conferences - 23th International Conference Radioelektronika 2013 and 13th Conference on Microwave Techniques COMITE 2013. The official language of the convention is English.

Venue

The Microwave and Radio Electronics Week 2013 will be held at the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Informatics, University of Pardubice, which is located in the center of Pardubice, Czech Republic.

Pardubice can be easily reached by train, bus or car. The venue is readily accessible by public transport.
